

RENAISSANCE SALON
519 Hawthorne Avenue,
Newark, New Jersey
Feb. 12, 1940

Mrs. Effie Manley
Newark, Eagles Baseball Club.
101 Montgomery Street,
Newark, New Jersey

Dear Mrs. Manley:

Knowing of your interest and activity in endeavoring to bring about equal opportunities and advantages for the Negro, I am sure that our work will interest you, especially in behavie of your Newark Eagles Baseball Club and as well as in behavie of the public in general.

As you may note from the "Clipping" enclosed, published in February 3rd issue of the Newark Herald News, we are endeavoring to give our people the same advantages and luxuries as enjoyed by the most elite. Therefore, we are particularly interested in Sport Clubs and Athletic groups and wish to extend to them a special invitation to visit our Salon and avail themselves of these advantages along the line of Scientific Swedish Massage.

We are modernly equipped to serve your Club exclusively. Our cabinets are all "Infra- Red Rayed to give our clients not only sweat bath, but the benefit of those Rays that are so important in maintaining that "Fit Feeling" of all successful athletes. Also, with each Massage our clients enjoy the luxury of sparkling whitesheets, fluffy blankets, pillows and individual towels and shoes.

We have male and female attendants. Miss Blount being the chief operator. Should an occasion arise, wherein our services are needed by your Club or any member individually we shall be more than happy to serve them at special reduced rates. We can arrange to accommodate groups or serve individually. Should this matter be of interest to you in reference to your Club, will you not give us a chance to prove our ability in serving you?

Your very truly,

Alfred Cornelius

Alfred Cornelius.